Funderburk - was excited school was starting up officially on Monday. Was excited businesses were opening up at a limited capacity and it was nice to see cars in the parking lots of Rae's Dayz.

Dufloth - he appreciated everyone having forward thinking. The City looked dramatically different than it did 5 years ago, even 1 year ago. There was a lot of progressive thinking and looking into the future. All the technology was exciting. It will be incredible to see what happens in the next 3 - 5 years. The team in place is doing a wonderful job.

Wheeler - wanted to know if we were doing what we needed to do to make sure the water levels were okay. Manager Stockdale stated we did not anticipate any flooding. The snow we received was dry. The reservoirs were only at 45-50% capacity.

TenEyck - thanked Council for their comments. He was happy to be able to provide grant funding opportunities to some business owners. It's a band-aid on a huge wound, but it was the life line they needed. We needed to keep shouldering on and keep our noses to the grindstone. We needed to keep doing anything necessary to keep our businesses going.
